DAMAGE IN TRANSIT

A. CANNONBALL:HNP TRUCK SHIPMENTS:

If material is damaged in shipment on a CannonBall:HNP truck; the following steps must be taken:

1. Inspect the unopened shipment for damage. If it is undamaged, accept it and sign the driver's bill (white copy). Your signature is his clear receipt from you that the goods are in apparent good order.
2. If you find a shortage or damage, have the driver note same on your bill (white copy) and driver's and sign and date his notation. Advise the driver if the material is to be replaced immediately.
3. If concealed damage is found, notify CannonBall:HNP and advise extent of damage and what replacement material is needed. CannonBall:HNP reserves the right to have its representative inspect damaged material.
4. Failure to follow the above directions may forfeit your claim to have damaged material replaced.

B. COMMON CARRIER SHIPMENTS:

Any claims for damage during shipment shall be made directly to the carrier. CannonBall:HNP shall not be responsible for any damage during shipment by common carrier. The Bill of Lading is an acknowledgement by the carrier of the receipt of material listed thereon in good condition. CannonBall:HNP's responsibility for the material ceases at that point.

Upon arrival of a shipment by common carrier, it is the customer's responsibility to:

1. Check the number of pieces in the shipment against the Bill of Lading provided by the driver.
2. Inspect the unopened shipment for damage. If it is undamaged, accept it and sign the driver's bill. Customer's signature is the driver's clear receipt that the goods are in apparent good order.
3. Should the customer find a shortage or damage, have the driver note same on customer's copy and the driver's copy of the bill and sign and date his notation at time of delivery.
4. Open and examine each shipment within 15 days of receipt and check for any concealed damage. If concealed damage is found, notify the delivery carrier within 15 days of receipt. Save the damaged material and the container it came in until inspected. Be sure to obtain a copy of the inspector's written report.
5. Failure to follow the above directions may forfeit your claim against the carrier for his negligence.
